RANDY OPTICIAN MISREAD THE SIGNS

By MILES PLATTING

AN OPTICIAN has been suspended after he mistook a female patient practising yoga moves in his store for FLIRTING.

John Snelgrove (above) got hot under the collar as he believed the woman was wiggling her bum in a "provocative" way to "get my interest".

The 64-year-old said he thought she was "simulating oral sex" as she bent over with an open mouth, and that her skirt rode up and "left little to the imagination".

Clinton leads tributes to Lord Trimble

FORMER US President Bill Clinton has led tributes to David Trimble, stating that his "lifetime of service" helped bring peace to Northern Ireland.

The 77-year-old peer and ex-leader of the Ulster Unionist Party was one of the principal architects of the Good Friday/Belfast Agreement that ended decades of conflict.

Lord Trimble, who jointly won the Nobel Peace Prize along with late SDLP leader John Hume, died on Monday following an illness.

Clinton said: "Hillary and I are deeply saddened by the passing of Lord David Trimble, a leader of courage, vision, and principle whose lifetime of service helped bring peace to Northern Ireland. "His legacy will endure in all who are living better lives because of his actions today."

Drought fears after heatwave

SWATHES of England may face drought within days if the hot and dry weather persists, the Environment Agency has confirmed.

A dry spring and early summer have withered rivers and reservoirs and watered down water quality in many parts of England, pushing most of the country into "prolonged dry weather" status, the first of four drought categories.

Whether areas will tip into the second "drought" stage hinges on when the rain returns.

Plenty of dry weather is forecast for the next few weeks.

ENERGY BILLS: YOU AIN'T SEEN NOTHING YET!

MILLIONS of people will be plunged into "unmanageable" debt this winter unless the government comes up with more support for those struggling to pay their energy bills, MPs have warned.

The business and energy select committee said a £15bn package of support, announced in May, had already been rendered obsolete by soaring energy prices, a driving force behind a 40-year-high 9.4% inflation rate.

The then chancellor, Rishi Sunak, who now is vying with Liz Truss to be the prime minister, announced the measures at a time when average dual-fuel tariffs were predicted to rise to £2,800. They are now forecast to reach

MPs warn of debt hell

£3,244 when the next price cap takes effect in October. That means that bills will have risen by nearly £2,000 within a year, compared with the £1,200 that Sunak's measures will make available to only the most vulnerable households.

The committee said the lack of any further support, amid the broader cost of living crisis, would lead to an "unacceptable rise in fuel poverty and hardship this winter".

"Once again, the energy crisis is racing ahead of the government," its chair, Labour MP

Darren Jones, said. "We were told by a number of witnesses, 'If you think things are bad now, you ain't seen nothing yet.'"

"This winter is going to be extremely difficult for family finances and it's critical that public funds are better targeted to those who need it the most."

In its 90-page report, the committee called for the most vulnerable and low-income households to pay a "social tariff", with discounted bills funded either by wealthier bill-payers, or through general taxation.

Home boozing 'could cause 25,000 deaths'

HEAVY home drinking during the pandemic may have set habits that will lead to rises in alcohol-related deaths in England, forecasters warn.

The NHS study suggests even under the best-case scenario of people cutting back to pre-pandemic boozing levels, there could be 1,830 extra deaths within two decades.

At worst it could be 25,000, along with a million extra hospital admissions.

Experts say the findings are a wake-up call.

Not everyone drank more during the pandemic. Surveys suggest, on average, light and moderate drinkers decreased their consumption.

But heavy drinkers drank even more.

Colin Angus, who led the University of Sheffield study, said: "These figures highlight that the pandemic's impact on our drinking is likely to cast a long shadow on our health, and paint a worrying picture at a time when NHS services are already under huge pressure."

Amazon ups Prime price

AMAZON is to raise the price of its Prime service for UK customers due to higher operating costs.

From September, monthly subscriptions will go up £1 to £8.99 and annual membership will increase from £79 to £95, despite signs people are beginning to cut back on streaming services.

Amazon said the price rise, its first in the UK since 2014, was partly due to inflation, which is at a 40-year high.

Other services such as Netflix have also increased prices.

However, Amazon Prime offers more than its streaming service. Prime also offer unlimited deliveries of products.

Amazon said the new pricing would begin at the next membership renewal date.

IS BORIS AIMING FOR A RETURN TO NUMBER 10?

GUTTED: Johnson does not want to leave No 10

BORIS Johnson will become a 'permanent nightmare' for his successor, a Tory grandee warned – as No10 distanced itself from claims he wants to stay in power.

Former party leader and foreign secretary Lord Hague warned that no outgoing PM has ever been very helpful to the person who follows them.

But he warned that Mr Johnson could be even more trouble than previous leaders due to his personality and the way he was removed.

Rebellion

Downing Street was forced to confirm the PM would step down once a new Conservative Party leader is in place in September.

It came after one of his allies, the multi-millionaire donor Lord Cruddas, said he wanted to "wipe away" his resignation.

Cruddas, a former Tory chairman who was gifted his peerage by Mr Johnson, said the PM 'does not want' to quit and 'wished that he could carry on'.

He is leading a small rebellion from grassroots Tories who want him to be allowed to run against Rishi Sunak and Liz Truss.

Lord Hague said: "Our brutal parliamentary system, in which heads of government are removed by voters or MPs and rarely come to a dignified end of their term, makes the torment of being replaced even harder to bear."

"This is particularly severe if a PM believes they never did anything wrong – think Edward Heath – or if they consider the electorate always backed them but their MPs were too weak to stick with them – think Margaret Thatcher.

"All of these feelings will apply to Boris Johnson."

"He is going to be Heath with jokes added in, and Thatcher with consistency taken out, all rolled into a bundle of resentment, denial, attention-seeking and attempted vindication that will be a permanent nightmare for the new prime minister."

Lord Cruddas said: "There was no ambiguity in Boris's views. He definitely does not want to resign. He wants to carry on and he believes, with the membership behind him, he can."

"He wished that he could carry on as Prime Minister. He said he does not want to resign."

SHAPPS TOLD TO STOP TRAIN STRIKE

TRANSPORT Secretary Grant Shapps is being urged to intervene to try to end the dispute between the RMT and Network Rail.

Scottish transport minister Jenny Gilruth is demanding action ahead of the latest stoppage by signallers and other Network Rail staff.

A strike planned for today will mean fewer than a tenth of ScotRail services will run – with disruption also expected on Thursday morning.

Ms Gilruth told the UK Transport Secretary: "I once again urge you to instruct Network Rail to engage in negotiations with the trade unions to reach a resolution."

"Resolution for staff and passengers is possible, but it will require both political will and focus."

She spoke out as David Simpson, the service delivery director at ScotRail, said that industrial action meant only "around 190" services could run today.

The rail operator had only just returned to operating a full timetable last week, a move which meant the number of services had increased to around 2,100 a day.

However the strike action means only five routes will be running in central Scotland.

SEX Education star Gillian Anderson has a very prickly sense of humour.

So when she spotted two ornamental cacti apparently sporting STIFFIES, the 53-year-old could not resist a selfie.

And to the delight of her almost one million Twitter followers, she captioned the snap: "Double trouble. #penisoftheday" when she posted it on social media.

Thousands posted delighted replies to the pictures, including her many lesbian fans.

Gillian won the hearts of many gay ladies in 2015 when she revealed she was open to the idea of lapping another woman's parts, saying: "To me a relationship is about loving another human being; their gender is irrelevant."

Baddie

She won fame in the sci-fi drama The X-Files and played Mrs Thatcher in The Crown. But her latest role has been sex therapist Jean Milburn in the Netflix comedy drama Sex Education.

It isn't the first time Anderson's name has been brought up around Doctor Who.

Before Jodie Whittaker was announced as the 13th Doctor, Anderson was considered to be a frontrunner herself.

And in 2009, it was rumoured that the actor would appear opposite Matt Smith's Doctor as the "renegade Time Lady The Rani" – a character from the 80s played by Kate O'Mara.

department asked, with the clip catching the mighty sound as the animal repeatedly flips and turns – with at least one onlooker chuckling.

Once captured, the gator was measured at 11 feet, 2 inches.

Perv Weinstein smells of POO says new book

HOLLYWOOD rape fiend Harvey Weinstein smells of SHIT, according to a new book.

Author Ken Auletta's bombshell new book, Hollywood Ending: Harvey Weinstein and the Culture of Silence, dives deep into the ugly truth of the drooling film producer's crimes.

"He had some notion in his head that his body was attractive," the author, 80, said, despite witness testimony that he smelled of faeces and had genitals scarred to the point they "looked like a vagina".

Still, "he really thought he was God's gift, a Don Juan," added Auletta.

In one chapter, he recounts how Jessica Mann – an ex-actress who claimed Weinstein, 70, raped her – testified that he smelled like "poop" and his private parts were "deformed."

Weinstein is serving 23 years in prison for rape and sex assault.

FACING TRIAL: Savannah Daisley

TYCOON SEX GIRL 'GUILT-TRIPPED TEEN'

A GLAMOROUS health entrepreneur told a 14-year-old she allegedly had sex with that their conversation should be "locked in a chest and put in the depths of the ocean", a court heard.

Savannah Daisley, 45, who is also the daughter of a tycoon horse breeder, is charged with four counts of aggravated sexual intercourse with a teenager in June.

Police allege she engaged in unlawful sex with the 14-year-old child on four occasions in May 2021.

Ms Daisley has been in custody since she was arrested by the Child Abuse Unit on June 27.

She faced court from Silverwater Correctional Facility near Sydney, Australia, where her defence barrister fought for her to be released on bail, saying Ms Daisley's mental health was "deteriorating" in custody.

She is the daughter of renowned horse breeder Ross Daisley, who sat at the front of the public gallery.

The court was told Ms Daisley was highly intoxicated at the time of the alleged offending.

Police prosecutor Kerry-Ann McKinnon told the court a legal phone tap heard the ritzy founder of the detox business Smart Cleanse made "admissions" to some of the acts.

The court was told the intercept occurred on June 27, just three days after the child told their mother about the allegations.

Ms McKinnon told the court Ms Daisley allegedly tried to "influence" the complainant into silence.

"She then goes on in an attempt to shift the blame, she suggests it was mutual, she seeks reassurance from the child, she accepts what the potential ramifications are going to be," the prosecutor said.

"Now she's guilt-tripping this child."

Magistrate Alison Viney granted bail, and Ms Daisley is expected to deny all charges and face a trial.

Cheryl tips Cardiff for Eurovision

BUCKS Fizz star Cheryl Baker has suggested Cardiff would be a good place to host the Eurovision Song Contest next year.

The Welsh capital is one of many cities being touted following confirmation the United Kingdom will host the event in 2023 on behalf of Ukraine.

Organisers the European Broadcasting Union (EBU) decided the event could not be held in the war-torn country following the Russian invasion.

Baker was part of Bucks Fizz alongside Bobby G, Mike Nolan and Jay Aston when they triumphed in 1981, winning with their song Making Your Mind Up.

Baker, 68, said: "It needs to go to a city where there's an international airport, where they've got a venue that's big enough, where there are enough hotels for everyone."

"I fancy Cardiff, I think that would be nice in Wales, the land of song."

Researchers in Hunan, China, looked at the sleep habits and medical histories of 360,000 Brits and found those who took naps on most days saw a 24% increase in their likelihood of stroke, and were 12% more likely to be diagnosed with high blood pressure.

The nap factor was even more worrisome in those age 60 and under, as napping most days led to a 20% higher chance of developing high blood pressure.

The study also highlights a link between regular napping and smoking, snoring and insomnia.

OUT OF FOCUS: Snelgrove texted his female patient

A VETERAN optician has been suspended after he mistook a female patient doing yoga moves in his store for flirting.

The sports enthusiast tilted her head down and bent forward when trying on her new glasses to make sure they stayed on when she performed the ancient exercises.

But John Snelgrove claimed he believed the woman was carrying out a move he thought was called 'dirty dog' and was wiggling her bottom in a 'provocative' way to 'get my interest'.

The 64-year-old even said he thought she was 'stimulating oral sex' as she bent over with an open mouth, and her skirt rode up and 'left little to the imagination'.

Flattered

Two days later the woman named only as 'Patient A' had to make an 'uneasy' return to his shop, Enhanced Optical Services, to collect her glasses, then complained.

Snelgrove, who did not apologise, later said he "realised that he had mistakenly taken Patient A's behaviour as an invitation for him to approach her and that as a man of advancing years he was flattered by his mistaken belief Patient A was interested in him".

At a General Optical Council [GOC] tribunal, Snelgrove was suspended for six months.

Snelgrove alleged the woman, when trying on glasses, 'bent over from the waist vigorously shaking her head in while rotating her body in what he considered to be a provocative manner'.

He claimed she was 'wiggling her posterior in a manner that he considered highly unusual'.

The report said: "He claimed that when she first bent down towards him, she was moving her head up and down with her mouth open in what he considered was a simulation of oral sex."

"He said that when she moved in front of the door to the practice and had her back to him, she was 'oscillating her posterior' in an attempt to 'get my interest'."

Snelgrove, who also described the woman's behaviour as 'totally outrageous', said he took a professional boundaries course.

He said 'it made him more aware of the potential to overstep the mark in this day and age'.

However, the tribunal ruled his thinking is still 'distorted' as he still believes her behaviour 'contributed to what happened'.

Lawnmower fire destroys dozen homes

MORE than a dozen homes were destroyed by a fire believed to have been sparked by a LAWNMOWER. At least 14 homes were burnt to the ground and six more were damaged when a large grass fire quickly spread through Balch Springs near Dallas, Texas.

Authorities believe the fire erupted when crews cutting grass in a nearby field may have struck a metal object, which caused sparks that burned the grass, the Balch Springs city manager said.

The flames quickly spread across the field and into at least 20 homes due to the dry conditions and wind.

Aerial footage shows roaring flames and smoke billowing out of homes and over a large stretch of land, while other videos revealed houses completely levelled by the inferno.

The nearby area was evacuated, with some residents having just minutes to leave their homes, while some were forced to leave all their belongings behind.

The shooter, a 76-year-old nudist, shot the man after he shouted insults at the beachgoers and then began pleasuring himself while staring at a woman, French police said.

After the two men got into a row, the elderly bather drew a hunting rifle from his pack and fired "at least three shots", one of which hit his target in the chest.

The shooter was an avid hunter who has a firearms licence, though it was unclear why he had the gun at the beach.

'Cock potion' makes lover bark like dog

A MAN was arrested after rubbing a "magic potion" on his cock that made his girlfriend bark like a dog during sex.

Ibrahim Orna, 33, of Abeokuta in Nigeria, has been accused of engaging in a conduct likely to cause a breach of peace.

He appeared before a magistrates' court in Abeokuta.

Prosecution Counsel Olakunle Shonibare told the court the defendant committed the offence on June 26 at the Ago-Ika area in Abeokuta.

He claimed Orna had applied a substance to his private parts before having sex with his 23-year-old girlfriend, Temilade Olabanji.

The victim allegedly started barking like a dog immediately after getting intimate with the suspect, and then fell unconscious.

The case was adjourned until next week.

WOMAN, 25, 'SPIT-ROASTED BY TEENAGERS IN THE PARK'

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A WOMAN was arrested after it was claimed she'd had sex with TWO teen lads in a park.

Makaila Yablonski, 25, is charged with sexual abuse, sexual conduct with a minor, public sexual indecency, and indecent exposure with a victim who is 15 years of age or more.

Yablonski was arrested and booked into the Yuma County, Arizona Detention Centre on the charges.

The investigation began as an assault, which led authorities to discover a sexual offence, the sheriff's office said.

Fondle

Investigators identified two male 17-year-olds as the victims in the investigation.

The sheriff's office said the alleged incident happened in Yuma, Arizona.

It's believed that Yablonski was "larking about" with the lads in a park, before she started to sexually fondle them.

Within minutes, she was being

'LARKING ABOUT': Makaila Yablonski

shagged by one while sucking off the other – a sexual practice known as 'spit-roasting'.

The romp was in full view of other park users and when an outraged dad came over to remonstrate, the lads set upon him and cops were called.

The age of consent in Arizona is 18. Yablonski made her initial court appearance where a judge reduced her bail amount.

"I'm sure she understands the gravity of the situation and will comply with the conditions of the release," Judge Juan Guerrero said.

Her next court appearance is scheduled for later this week.

KARATE TEACHER FACES JAIL FOR SEX WITH TEEN PUPIL

A KARATE instructor faces up to 15 years in prison for shagging one of her students.

Erin Stephens, 31 (right), owner of Avon Lake ATA Karate for Kids in Avon Lake, Ohio, is accused of having "consensual" sex with the student and part-time worker during a period when he was aged between 16 and 17.

Although the boy was of Ohio's age of consent when the relationship began, state law would still make this illegal since Stephens was in the position of being his coach or teacher, or a "person with disciplinary control over a minor".

Stephens's accuser, who is now 19, approached Avon Lake police in March with the claims.

She now faces three charges of sexual battery.

Crocodile mauls skinny-dip pair

TWO tourists who went skinny-dipping at night are lucky to be alive after they were attacked by a CROCODILE.

The pair of Americans were mauled by the monster reptile at Mexico's popular Puerto Vallarta resort.

The civil defence office in the western state of Jalisco said the first Yank, age 24, suffered bites to his legs, arm, abdomen and chest.

The victim's 30-year-old companion tried to rescue him from the jaws of the beast and was bitten on the hand.

The office said both men, from Illinois, were given first aid at the scene on Bocanegra beach and later treated at a local hospital.

FISHING GRANNY'S STABBED IN FANNY

A PENSIONER has been stabbed in the MINGE by the beak of a giant sailfish.

The 100lb fish jumped out of the water off the coast of Florida and stabbed 73-year-old Katherine Perkins in the minge region as fellow fishermen tried to reel it in.

The attack happened as Ms Perkins, of Arnold in Maryland, was standing in a boat while her two companions tried to pull the giant fish in on a fishing line to take a picture.

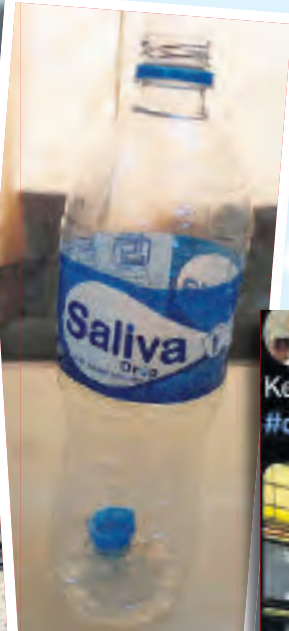

The sheriff's office said: "The sailfish jumped out of the water and stabbed Katherine in the groin area while she was standing next to the centre console of the fishing boat."

The incident happened about two miles off the shore of Stuart in Florida, on the state's Atlantic Coast, north of Palm Beach.

Ms Perkins's companions applied pressure to her vag wound, and she was later taken to a local hospital for treatment. Her condition wasn't reported.

#THE CRAZIEST VIRALS OUT THERE

Kiss terrapin and die from sh*t's warning

DON'T kiss or cuddle tortoises and terrapins ... or you could DIE of the SHITS!

That's the warning from Yank authorities after a potentially lethal outbreak of salmonella was traced back to the shelled reptiles.

The Centres for Disease Control said 15 people were infected with salmonella and five hospitalised, though no deaths have been reported.

People can get salmonella by touching a terrapin or something in its environment and then touching their mouth or handling food, regardless of the animal's size.

Those affected are aged between one and 59, with outbreaks reported in 11 states.

However, the agency said the number could be higher as many cases may not have been reported and many people recover without seeking medical attention.

Tom Nissen perpetrated in December 1993 was far from child's play.

The pair learned that their friend Brandon Teena, 21, had actually been born a woman – and he still possessed the breasts and female genitalia he'd tried so hard to hide.

Disgusted by what they had found out, Lotter and Nissen kidnapped and raped Brandon before ordering him to keep quiet.

Brandon, though, defied their hate-filled orders and went to the police.

What happened next, however, exposed a harmful underbelly of prejudice and ignorance from those in authority.

Nissen and Lotter, 22, were questioned about the rape but no charges were brought due to a 'lack of evidence'.

Brandon's mother, JoAnn Brandon, later successfully sued Richardson County police for failing to prevent her son's death. Sheriff Charles Laux was even found to have referred to Brandon as 'it', rather than 'he'.

Testified

Three days after that initial sexual assault, Lotter and Nissen hunted down Brandon before shooting and stabbing him to death along with two friends who had been protecting him – Lisa Marie Lambert, 24, and Phillip DeVine, 19.

After the murderers were arrested, Nissen turned on Lotter and testified in court that he had been the killer and antagonist.

Nissen scored a reduced sentence of life in prison as Lotter was handed a death sentence in February 1996.

Lotter, now 48, protests his innocence to this day, pointing the finger right back at Nissen.

In a recent TV interview, Lotter moaned about his life while refusing to take responsibility for his actions.

He said: "It's pretty boring. What do I miss the most about the outside? Everything."

"There's not just one thing. Family, of course. I can have communication with them, but it's not the same. And I don't get to see all of them."

"Everyone has the will to live. I'm going to fight with every last breath I have to prove my innocence."

JoAnn Brandon, meanwhile, is still consumed by grief and haunted by images of seeing son Brandon's battered body at his funeral.

She said: "When I touched the head, I couldn't touch anywhere there wasn't a bump."

After winning her claim against the police department who did so little to protect Brandon, she said: "I'm so happy today. I'll sleep better knowing that we have found some justice."

"Because of this case, fewer parents will find their kids abused and exposed to danger by law enforcement officials."

Brandon was born Teena Renae Brandon and grew up in a mobile home in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Abused

When her father Patrick died in a car accident when she was just eight months old, it was left to JoAnn to bring up Teena and her older sister, Tammy.

As young children, both Teena and Tammy were sexually abused by their uncle. As far as

IN FRIDAY'S

HATE CRIME:
Raging Lotter
humiliated, raped and then killed Brandon

DATING:
Brandon and Lana
Tisdal

anyone can remember, Teena was always a 'tomboy'.

And when she reached her teens, she began identifying as a male, calling herself Billy at one stage.

Mum JoAnn, however, did not find it easy to cope with recognising her daughter as a male.

She once said: "I wouldn't play the game. If someone called here asking for Billy, I would say, 'There's no Billy here'."

"I wouldn't refer to her as something she wasn't."

Teena, however, was starting to find her true self. She even enjoyed several relationships with women before moving to Falls City, Nebraska, in 1993 and becoming Brandon – identifying only as a man from then on.

Brandon moved into the home of close friend Lisa Lambert and eventually began dating Lisa's friend, Lana Tisdal.

He also started hanging out with ex-convicts Lotter and Nissen.

The story behind his tragic murder began on December 19, 1993, when Brandon was arrested for forging cheques.

News of his arrest was posted in the local newspaper under his birth name, Teena Brandon.

Rumours began to circulate.

Fuelled by booze at a Christmas Eve party, Lotter and Nissen grabbed Brandon and forced him to remove his trousers.

With utmost cruelty, they also forced Brandon's girlfriend Lana to watch as his birth gender was exposed.

Attacked

Police files reveal: "Lotter held Brandon while Nissen pulled his pants down in Lana Tisdal's presence, exposing a sock between his legs."

Hours later, Lotter and Nissen took things further.

Court documents say: "Nissen physically attacked Brandon and forced him into a car driven by Lotter."

"Both Nissen and Lotter then subjected Brandon to non-consensual sexual penetration."

It was a sustained and brutal attack.

Lana's mother, Linda Gutierrez, told how Brandon turned up at her door in urgent need of medical attention.

Linda said: "When Brandon showed up he was wearing no shoes and a T-shirt, holding his ribs and bleeding."

Brandon had been warned by Lotter and Nissen not to go running to the cops, unless he wanted them to 'silence him permanently'.

But, bravely, Brandon did file a report.

It was subsequently ignored.

When Sheriff Laux questioned Brandon about the rape, he seemed more interested in his transsexuality rather than the actual crime – to the point where Brandon began to refuse to answer questions.

Lotter and Nissen were quizzed by detectives but released without charge.

That's when they set about making sure Brandon would keep quiet permanently.

Hours before the murder, Lana said

Lotter told her 'I feel like killing someone'.

She added: "He was wearing gloves. I'd never seen him do that, not even in the dead of winter."

Court documents describe what happened next: "Around 1am on December 31, 1993, Nissen and Lotter drove Lotter's car to Lambert's residence. Both were wearing gloves and Lotter was armed with a handgun and a knife."

Hiding

"Lotter kicked in the door and they went to the bedroom, where they found Lambert lying on a bed. Her baby was in a crib nearby."

"Nissen asked where Brandon was before finding him hiding under the bed."

"Nissen grabbed Brandon by the arm, stood him up, then shot him."

"Brandon continued to twitch, so Nissen got the knife from Lotter and stabbed him in the abdomen repeatedly."

"After he stabbed Brandon, Nissen picked up the baby and handed the baby to Lambert."

"As soon as he did so, Lotter raised the pistol and shot Lambert in the stomach. The shot did not kill her."

"Nissen grabbed the baby and put him back in the crib."

"Nissen demanded to know if anyone else was in the house. When Lambert said Phillip DeVine was present, Lotter left the room to find him."

"Lotter returned to the room with DeVine and shot Lambert again, this time in the eye."

"DeVine, who had been pleading for his life, was led back to the living room."

"Nissen told DeVine to sit down on the couch. As soon as he did so, Lotter shot him twice."

Lotter and Nissen fled before eventually being arrested and charged with murder.

Brandon is buried in Lincoln Memorial Cemetery in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mum JoAnn finally seems to have accepted Brandon's true identity.

In an interview in 2013, she said: "I wonder about how my life would be different if she was still here with me."

"She would be such a joy to have around."

"She was always such a happy kid."

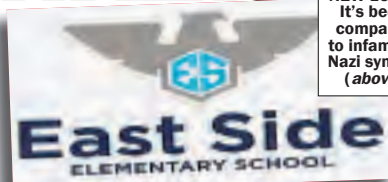

"I imagine her being a happy adult."

"And if being happy meant living as a man, I would be fine with that."

PRIMARY SCHOOL: WE ARE NOT NAZIS

NEW LOGO:
It's been compared to infamous Nazi symbol (above)

BOSSSES at a primary school have insisted they are NOT Nazis after critics pointed out their new logo looks like the controversial German movement.

The logo for East Side Elementary, in Marietta, Georgia, was unveiled last week, depicting the school's eagle mascot along with its initials in a blue font.

A message to parents said it was selected to "represent the eagle soaring into excellence," as well as to honour the school's history.

But parents and other eagle-eyed observers, including the rabbi of the synagogue opposite, noted its "striking and very uncomfortable" resemblance to the Nazi eagle.

The Nazi eagle, also known as the Nazi war eagle, is listed among hate symbols by the Anti-Defamation League. It was developed by Germany's Nazi Party in the 1920s, based loosely on traditional German coats of arms.

The symbol initially featured an eagle gripping a swastika.

Critics have conceded the school's new logo does not contain a swastika, but its rollout has since been halted

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

and officials are now "immediately reviewing needed changes," a district spokesperson confirmed.

The design was based on a US Army symbol, district officials added.

In a statement, local school bosses said: "We understand and strongly agree that similarities to Nazi symbols are unacceptable. Although this design was based on the US Army colonel's eagle wings, stakeholder input has been and continues to be important to our schools."

To add insult to injury, East Side Elementary is also located across the street from a synagogue.

Rabbi Amanda Flaks said: "I thought, 'That looks off, that makes me feel uncomfortable', and I came back to it a few times and I felt sick each time."

Model booted out of local supermarket

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

AN influencer claims she was kicked out of a supermarket for being "hot" and wearing revealing clothing.

Brazilian lara Ferreira said she was shopping in Miami when a supermarket worker approached her and asked the online content creator to leave the store.

She said he recognised her from her OnlyFans account, and he assumed she would be showing off in the store and filming it.

Lara said she was alone in the supermarket, which she didn't name, and didn't reveal what she wore at the time, adding she believed she was kicked out for being "hot".

She said: "I felt humiliated – I was in shock when he took me out of the market screaming.

"My look was not scandalous. I wear it in Brazil, on a daily basis.

Prejudice

"The employee accused me of something that I didn't do.

"For me it's prejudice just because I'm hot.

"I have recorded in public, but always in a discreet way, without embarrassing other people."

Lara also said it's not the first time she has been shamed for her work.

She said once she was on a beach wearing a thong swimsuit while in Brazil when she was approached by three women.

They told her that she was "clueless" and also asked her if she sold "nude photos".

POLICE CLOSE NET ON 'HOOLIGAN' MONKEY

COPS are closing in on a rogue MONKEY that has attacked 42 people in one city.

Macaques are seen commonly across large parts of Japan, and are considered a pest in some areas – eating crops and even entering homes.

But the spate of monkey attacks in Yamaguchi city, in western Japan, is unusual, with adults and children suffering wounds including scratches and bites.

Authorities are now turning to tranquilliser guns after traps they set failed to snare any primates.

The first reported Japanese macaque attack came on July 8 when the primate climbed into a flat in the Ogori district and tried to drag a baby out of the window, inflicting several wounds.

The monkey went onto attack another five people in the area plus two kids at a primary school.

'There are so many dicks I'm in heaven!'

...WITH
ARIA GIOVANNI,

TOOTING,
SOUTH LONDON

THERE'S one thing that really turns me on ... the idea of an orgy!

Is it that wild this day and age? I don't know, but it is for me.

I used to be quite a prude when I was in my teen years and early 20s. Because it's so slutty and out there that's what makes the idea of it so incredibly horny.

In my fantasy I go to one of these high brow sex parties in a big fancy mansion.

There are lots of hunky men and beautiful women and everyone is wearing masquerade masks. The anonymity makes me feel daring!

There's a big round bed with velvet sheets and I end up making out with a hot girl on it.

Several guys crowd round us and we invite them to join in.

There are so many dicks in all my holes that I'm in heaven!

I'm getting all worked up just thinking about it.

It's definitely on the bucket list...

Ambulance thief in cop chase drama

A MAN was arrested after stealing an ambulance left with the keys still in it from a restaurant car park, and leading cops on a wild chase.

Ervin Alexander, 37 (above), hijacked the Catawba County, North Carolina, ambulance after it was left running because there were refrigerated drugs inside the vehicle.

Police said Alexander jumped in the driver's seat and took off.

Two county emergency medical technicians who were responsible for the vehicle were having breakfast inside a nearby cafe and did not realise it had been stolen until they had finished their food and headed back outside.

Patrol Sgt S.D. Martin said the ambulance headed west on a motorway and that state troopers got behind it approximately 40 miles west of Winston-Salem and tried stopping it.

The chase continued for three miles until Iredell County deputies used tyre-deflating devices to a halt.

Alexander was charged with possession of a stolen vehicle.

Pools shrink to save water

FACING a serious drought, Las Vegas is diving into action in an effort to reduce the amount of water waste.

With the Lake Mead reservoir drying up, Clark County officials voted to shrink the size of swimming pools to no more than 600ft².

The largest county in Nevada has around 200,000 residential pools for 2.4 million residents.

"Having a pool in Las Vegas is like having a second car. It's that common," said Kevin Kraft, owner of a family custom pool firm.

A projected 3.2 million gallons of water will be saved in the first year and could increase to 32m by the year 2032.

The Southern Nevada Water Authority is now working to put the measure into effect this year, which will only apply to new pools and spas at single-family homes.

Randy couple have sex in court...THREE times

By JON TAYLOR news@sundaysport.co.uk

A COUPLE who had sex three times in a courtroom foyer have been sentenced for their "outrageous behaviour" after a court heard it was down to the "exuberance of youth."

Shameka Leeding was due to appear before magistrates in Toowoomba, Australia, on June 28 for an unrelated matter, supported by partner Jake Quinn, 20.

At 9.40am, the couple were captured on CCTV moving to seating in the courthouse public waiting area where Leeding, 19, straddled Quinn and the pair began to kiss "vigorously".

They then began to have sexual intercourse, with Leeding caught on camera lifting her skirt, sitting on her partner and moving up and down on Quinn's lap.

They stopped after they were approached by security and Leeding got off Quinn who tried to cover himself up.

Penis

The security officer left the area, and Quinn exposed his penis again and Leeding adjusted his penis under her skirt, then sat on his lap, facing away and again started moving up and down on his lap.

They continued until they were interrupted by a volunteer court staff member but they continued once the staff member left the area.

For a third time the couple were approached, again by security, and

LIFTED HER SKIRT: Shameka Leeding

Leeding quickly stood up and held her arms out in an attempt to block the view of the security guard while Quinn tried to cover himself up.

The couple left the waiting area, which was full ahead of a busy court day, with members of the public less than 16 feet away.

They were identified by CCTV cameras, and on June 30 the couple were issued with notices to appear by police.

On Friday, the pair pleaded guilty to an indecent act in any place to which the public are permitted access.

Solicitor Nathan Bouchier said Quinn's actions "weren't planned" and the unemployed labourer simply "wasn't thinking" how inappropriate their actions were.

Leeding's solicitor, Ryan McCullough, said the only explanation for the couple's behaviour was that they had been overcome with the "exuberance of youth".

Magistrate Clare Kelly described the offending as "outrageous behaviour".

They were each given 60 hours of community service.

The TV presenter, 27, put on a busty display in a tiny purple bikini top and showed off her sensational figure in matching bottoms.

Natural beauty Maya went makeup free in her latest Instagram video, as she took a dip in the pool at her hotel to cool off.

A fan said: "I want to see her fanny, and that."

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Hooker is draining my cock – and my wallet!

Dear Sam,

I'M a father-of-three who got divorced a year ago and I've been dating a hooker for two months.

Actually, I'm not really dating her because it's costing me £300 a week to "take her out".

She's blonde, 21, and sex-mad. I met her one night when I was kerb-crawling in the red-light district.

I picked her up and she charged me £50 for an expert blowjob followed by a dirty scuttle – and I have to admit I was instantly hooked.

Saucy

In fact, I was so infatuated with her wonderful technique that I arranged to pick her up again the next night – and I've seen her and shagged her almost every night since.

I don't simply give her one now, though. First, I take her for an expensive meal and then I drive her to some secluded spot, where I hand over the readies and she wastes no time getting down to business.

Last month I took her on a week's holiday to north Wales. I booked a luxury caravan and bought her some saucy lingerie and a nurse's uniform. She charged me a wallet-busting £600 for the week, so I was determined to make her earn it.

On the first night she wore stockings and suspenders and put on the sexy nurse's uniform.

She looked tremendous in the tight uniform, which showed off her big tits and lovely legs.

I got my rock-hard knob out and she sucked me off, running her hot wet tongue up and down my shaft and licking my balls.

She then got her tits out and brought me off all over her fantastic boobs.

We then went to the bedroom and I undressed her and plunged my head between her thighs to lick her out for a while.

The wonderful aroma of her fanny juices soon got me hard again and I spread her legs wide before plunging my cock into her.

She was loving it as I pounded away and she wrapped her legs around my shoulders so I could penetrate her more deeply.

I then took her doggy-style. It was brilliant as I could watch her tits bouncing all over the place in a mirror opposite the bed.

I still see her every night and recently I asked for a discount because I'm spending so much on her.

She said no, but I didn't complain because I'm happy to be going out with her after being stuck in my lonely flat.

I want to marry her, but I'm afraid she'll tell me to piss off.

Could you give me some advice please?
MT, Liverpool

Sam says...

I CAN'T help feeling you're being taken for a ride by this woman.

Dear Sam,

AFTER much pestering, my wife of 10 years agreed to let another man f**k her while I watched.

We decided to pick a guy off the internet who claimed to have a huge knob and invited him round to our house.

After a few drinks the missus was pretty tipsy and she put her arms around him. He looked at me, as if just to confirm it was all right, and I nodded.

He started caressing the wife's boobs and I watched as her hand snaked between his thighs, searching for his cock.

He spread her legs and slipped between them. She raised up her knees as he placed his cock at the tip of her pussy.

Slowly he slid it into her, inch after inch. He finally got way in and the wife groaned loudly, saying that she'd never felt so full in her entire life.

I watched as he began slowly f**king my wife, sliding that large cock inside her.

I watched, masturbating myself, and just as he pushed himself all the way into my wife, shooting his load, I came all over her.

The problem is she wants it to become a regular thing, while for me it was just a one-off.

DB, Birmingham

Sam says...

YOU'VE really only yourself to blame.

Dumped – because I watched lesbo romp

Dear Sam,

I'VE just returned from a lads' holiday in Tenerife. We had a great time with the reps, who were up for just about anything.

I'd promised my girl I'd be faithful, so the closest I got to shagging was when one of my pals brought back a boiler in the early hours and banged her in the bed next to mine.

But on the last night I got totally pissed in a nightclub and managed to lose my pals as they went off in search of some party girls.

I ended up wandering down several corridors when I got back to the hotel and caught a glimpse of two women necking outside one of the rooms. To my surprise, they invited me in.

Moist

One was a cute little blonde and the other was a flame-haired, big-busted stunna.

They told me they were lesbians, so I couldn't join in, but they added that they enjoyed having an audience sometimes.

I sat on the balcony as they stripped off on the couch and took it in turn to lick one another's moist fannies.

They were putting fingers up and chewing on fanny lips while I watched. Finally, they beckoned me inside and let me jerk off over their tits.

Last weekend I told my girlfriend about it and she dumped me.

But I don't think I did anything wrong. Do you?
PL, Lincoln

Sam says...

YES you did – you told her.

BUSTY Angel Wicky may look like butter wouldn't melt, but the naughty minx says she often fantasises about being bossed about.

The beauty, who boasts heavy 32DD sweater stretchers, said she loves a dominant fella who takes control in bed.

Angel enjoys role play, where she plays hard to get and resists the randy fella's advances.

She said: "There is nothing hotter than a dominant man. I get so turned on by being bossed about in the bedroom."

"It depends on my mood in that moment. Sometimes I love being really submissive and eager to please."

"Having my bloke instruct me on how to lick and suck his hard cock, or at what pace to ride him, will make me climax faster than I can say, 'Yes, Master!'"

"I like a bit of bondage, too... whips, chains, handcuffs, all that stuff."

"Getting to play in a fully kitted-out dungeon would be heaven."

"I love all those power games!"

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVD's FOR £25 (was £75)*IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc*** and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVD's at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

SANDRA SHINE

SALES manager David Barnes says that his gift of the gab could work wonders on Sandra Shine.

The 47-year-old, from Newcastle, asked for a sexy snap of the Carlisle cutie with her 34D boobs on show.

He said: "I sell cars all day, everyday, and I've got the chat to sell snow to an Eskimo. "So I'd hope if I ever met Sandra I'd chat her into bed."

"Until then though, I'm more than happy with a saucy snapshot – she's a real fitty!"

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you are clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

LISA BANGERT

RETIRED chippy owner Neil Fitzpatrick has his eyes on glamour legend Lisa Bangert.

Neil, 66, from Fleetwood, sold his chip shop two years ago and said ogling the babes in the Midweek Sport makes his days brighter.

However, his favourite is Lisa from Mansfield, – thanks to her perfectly pert 34B boobies.

He said: "I do get bored now I've packed it all in but I look forward to reading the Sport three times a week."

"Can I see a topless picture of Lisa in the meantime? Cheers!"

"One day, she may pop in but I'm not sure what I'd do – probably just stare at her 32D boobs and try to pick my jaw off the floor!"

SPORT STARTS HERE WITH RACING

TOO GOOD:
Baaeed

Star Baaeed has too much speed

BANK on BAAEED to cement his position as one of the best horses in the world when he lines up in the Qatar Sussex Stakes at Goodwood.

A perfect eight from eight so far, with his last six coming at stakes level, William Haggas' charge is set for what could be his final start over eight furlongs before extending out to a mile and a quarter for the crescendo of his on-track career.

Baaeed barely broke a sweat when winning the Lockinge and Queen Anne Stakes so far this term and he appears set to sign off at a mile in style with his task made easier by a late setback to 2000 Guineas and St James's Palace winner Coroebus.

Missing

His detractors will question the quality of opposition he has faced throughout his career, but when winning last season's Queen Elizabeth II Stakes he became one of just three horses to finish ahead of high-class miler Palace Pier and it is hard to argue that there is a horse of that calibre in this line-up.

With Coroebus missing it might be left to last year's winner Alcohol Free, who took the July Cup over six furlongs last time out, to chase him home, but Baaeed would have to seriously disappoint to be beaten.

By MIKE FRANCIS

He has been given plenty of time to recover from his Royal Ascot exertions and he son of Sea The Stars can dazzle again on the Sussex Downs.

Also at Goodwood, it could be a case of rocket by name, rocket by nature when Rocket Rodney blazes a trail in the Markel Molecomb Stakes.

George Scott's speedy son of Dandy Man blitzed his rivals in the Dragon Stakes at Sandown earlier this month and this Group Three looks the logical next step for this talented young sprinter.

The form of that Sandown victory was boosted when the third, Eddie's Boy, ran out a comfortable winner of Newbury's valuable Weatherbys Super Sprint, while before Sandown, Rocket Rodney was only beaten a neck by Little Big Bear in the Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot and that Ballydoyle inmate has subsequently won again at the Curragh.

The ultra-consistent Oscula could be the one to side with, turned out quickly, in the Whispering Angel Oak Tree Stakes.

George Boughey's tough and hardy filly was beaten only a nose in a Group Three at Ascot on Saturday and in five outings this summer, she is yet to finish any worse than third.

That effort came over a trip that probably stretches her stamina to the limit, so the drop back to seven furlongs should suit here and she is a versatile operator when it comes to ground conditions.

Impressive York scorer The Platinum Queen could be too good for her rivals in the British EBF Alice Keppel Fillies' Conditions Stakes.

Spare

Her sole disappointment came in a red-hot Queen Mary at Royal Ascot and it is hard to ignore the way she won on the Knavesmire.

Encourageable was deemed good enough to run in the Listed Heron Stakes on his penultimate run and could make a mark of 86 count in the racingtv.com Straight-Mile Series Handicap at Redcar.

At Sandown, John and Thady Gosden's Lisboa will have learnt from his Newbury debut and the Galileo colt could take a leap forward in the EBF Novice Stakes, while Canterbury Bell won with a bit to spare at Nottingham in May and is interesting off a figure of 72 in the Esher Green Fillies' Handicap.

BUT HAMILTON WON'T GIVE UP DESPITE MAJOR CAR TROUBLES

LEWIS Hamilton expects Max Verstappen to cruise to his second world championship – describing the Red Bull driver's path to probable glory as “smooth-sailing”.

Verstappen racked up the seventh win of his title defence at Sunday's French Grand Prix after rival Charles Leclerc crashed out from the lead. Verstappen will arrive for this week's Hungarian Grand Prix – the final round before Formula One's four weeksummer shutdown – holding a commanding 63-point advantage over Leclerc, the equivalent of two-and-a-half victories with 10 rounds left.

Hamilton, who is now more than a century of points behind Verstappen despite claiming his best result of the season with second place in France, said: “I am gutted for Charles. He has been doing a great job.”

“But it is not easy to have that performance and pace and be able to maintain it. I feel for the whole team because I know what that can feel like.”

“It is a massive gap to Max so that is pretty smooth-sailing for him in that space. “But a lot can go wrong. I would just advise Ferrari to keep their heads down and continue to push.”

History

Hamilton's Mercedes team celebrated their finest result of the season with George Russell finishing third to join Hamilton on the podium.

It has been a turbulent campaign for the grid's once all-conquering team, leaving Hamilton to draw parallels with 2009.

Hamilton started that season in a deeply uncompetitive McLaren before pulling off a surprise win at the Hungaroring. Could history repeat itself this weekend?

“I remember that year very clearly,” said Hamilton, who has won in Hungary a record eight times. I remember arriving back from winter training and being in a meeting with the guys, and they were like ‘we have already hit our downforce target’.

“And I was like ‘wow, really? That probably means we have not set the target high enough’.

“I got in the car in a test at Portimao and it was horrendous to drive, the worst car I have ever driven. But we chipped away at it, and we got our first win in Budapest.”

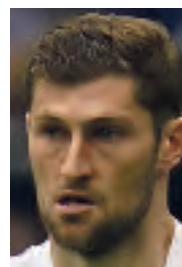

“The start of this year was very similar. Sitting down it looked glorious. We had a lot of performance on the car, and a lot of confidence that the car was going to be good.

Love

“But we got in the car, it was bouncing and it has taken a long time to fix that.”

“So far we have not made that big step that we did in 2009 to win in Budapest but who knows? We are not giving up.”

“We are staying pedal to the metal. Maybe our car will be good in Hungary, maybe we will be closer to Red Bull and Ferrari. I hope so much that we will be because I love that track.”

New deal delight for Davies

By WES KIRBY

TOTTENHAM defender Ben Davies admits it is an exciting time to be at the club after he extended his contract until 2025.

The Wales international, who moved to Spurs from Swansea eight years ago, did not need to think twice about adding an additional 12 months on to his previous deal.

“After last season and the summer this club has had there is no more exciting time than right now to be at this club,” he said.

“I was enjoying my football and when the opportunity came to extend my contract I was more than happy to do so.”

“This is a significant amount of time in football, especially when a career is quite short and in football people move around a lot, so it is an honour to still be here and keep it going.”

“We’ve brought players in we hope will improve us as a squad and make us more competitive throughout the season.”

“It will be a pretty jam-packed schedule around the World Cup so we need everyone to play their part.”

“It’s a very exciting time and a season we are all looking forward to.”

Davies, 29, has made 271 appearances in all competitions and his 58 in Europe put him in the club's top-five all-time list.

Gareth hits the target

GARETH Bale opened his Major League Soccer goals account when he struck from the bench in his second appearance for new club Los Angeles FC.

The 33-year-old Wales international, who joined LAFC last month following the end of his nine-year stay at Real Madrid, found the back of the net for the first time in a 2-0 win over Sporting Kansas City on Saturday evening.

Bale secured the points seven minutes from time after Cristian Arango had opened the scoring for the visitors at Children's Mercy Park.

PAT TOO BIG FOR PALACE!

TOP Premier League clubs will be monitoring Patrick Vieira's second season with Crystal Palace after making an 'outstanding' impact at Selhurst Park, according to former Eagles striker Clinton Morrison.

The Frenchman's first year in south London was a resounding success, from his side's stunning win at Manchester City in October to their brilliant FA Cup semi-final run.

By ANDY MILLOM

Add a career-high 14 league goals for lynchpin Wilfried Zaha and a breakthrough campaign from loanee Conor Gallagher and it is no wonder Vieira was shortlisted for the Premier League manager of the season award.

"He's done an outstanding job," said Morrison, who scored more than 100 goals in his two spells with the club, said.

"No disrespect to Palace, it is my team, I was there nine-and-a-half years, but there will be big teams looking at Patrick Vieira."

"The style of play, to evolve that quickly, was sensational. He got the best out of players. He's one of the best midfielders the Premier League has ever seen, and I think he will be one of the best managers."

Morrison's assessment echoed that of 93 per cent of Palace fans who answered yes to the question "is your manager the right man to take the club forward?" in Sky Bet's 2022 Fan Hope survey.

The study of 1,600 UK-based Premier League fans, evenly split across all 20 clubs, revealed Palace supporters were the seventh-most confident in their man at the helm. Liverpool's Jurgen Klopp led the pack with a 99 per cent approval rating, one point ahead of Manchester City's Pep Guardiola, while only 66 per cent had confidence in Southampton's last-placed Ralph Hasenhuttl.

Vieira's success no doubt also contributed to Palace supporters' dramatic shift in spirits from this time last year.

Eagles fans were one of just eight fanbases revealed to be more hopeful than last season – 18.64 per cent more optimistic than 2021, second only to Newcastle (94.92) and Spurs (19.89) positive pendulum swings.

An astonishing 76 per cent of Palace supporters believe Vieira's side will finish inside the top 10 this campaign. As did Morrison, who initially suggested a "top-10th or top-11th finish would be a good season" but backed the SE25 faithful when pressed.

"I could be wrong but I'm being optimistic. I'm going to go top 10," he said.

"The key will be keeping the big players fit, adding a few more additions to the squad, and starting the season well—that's the most important thing. You don't want to be playing catch-up."

And if any are concerned that the man in their manager's chair could be poached by survey time next year, Morrison offered a few words of comfort.

"The fans shouldn't worry, they should just enjoy him while he's here," he said, before quickly adding, "I don't think he'll leave anyway. For now I still think he's learning and growing with this team, and hopefully they can pick up a trophy this season."

IN DEMAND: Vieira will attract attention from the big boys

STRUGGLE: Morrison fears Palace will lose gaffer Vieira

VIRGIL UP FOR ANOTHER BATTLE

By PAUL THOMAS

LIVERPOOL defender Virgil Van Dijk accepts his form will always come under scrutiny following his serious knee injury but he heads into the new season in a better place than 12 months ago.

Last summer the Dutch captain was finalising his rehabilitation after cruciate ligament surgery which kept him out for 10 months, with his readiness for the start of the campaign still in doubt.

Not only did he make the opening match of the Premier League season, he started 51 of Liverpool's 63 games and was named in the team of the season.

This time around he feels he can concentrate on just reaching peak fitness at the club's squad training camp in Austria ahead of Saturday's Community Shield clash against Manchester City in Leicester.

"I will still be under the microscope and that's fine. That's something I've created myself," he told Liverpoolfc.com.

"But it's definitely a different feeling in this pre-season."

"Last year, coming back from the injury, you're trying to ease your way back in. This year, you try to get as fit as possible as quickly as possible."

"The pre-season is quite short; we have a big game obviously coming up."

"But I know myself, I know my body and I know what I have to do in order to be ready for the season – that's what I'm trying to do each and every day."

Liverpool won an FA and Carabao Cup double last season, reached the Champions League final and took the Premier League title race into the final 10 minutes of the campaign.

It was a season in which they played every match they were eligible for and while that may seem like a one-off, Van Dijk said the plan was to target everything again.

"Everyone was disappointed in the end; coming that close but not close enough by winning those two other trophies," added the Dutchman, who also revealed he spoke to fellow centre-back Joe Gomez, who slipped to fourth choice at Anfield after fitness issues, before the England international signed his new contract earlier this month.

"We start the year, every year, trying to win every game ahead of us and that's not going to be any different this year."

"We're going to give it a really good go to win everything we can."

"We know how tough it's going to be."

OUR PREVIEW OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

BIG BOYS STRAIGHT BACK UP!

Norwich and Watford can yo-yo to Prem

THE 2022-23 Championship season kicks off earlier than usual this week due to the World Cup finals in Qatar, which start in November.

Huddersfield take on relegated Burnley at the John Smith's Stadium on Friday night in the new campaign's opening fixture.

Here, we take a look at each club's chances.

BIRMINGHAM CITY

New boss John Eustace is Blues' ninth manager since 2016 and attempts to stabilise the perennial strugglers are still being undermined by ongoing speculation over the future ownership of the club. Squad investment has been nominal, while incomplete major repair works at St Andrew's remain a bugbear with fans.

Prediction: Relegation

BLACKBURN ROVERS

Blackburn flirted with the play-offs last season but are a club in transition after appointing Jon Dahl Tomasson as head coach and Gregg Broughton as director of football. The departures of skipper Darragh Lenihan and on-loan players have left a big hole and others could follow. Recruitment remains key to Rovers' chances.

Prediction: Mid-table

BLACKPOOL

The Seasiders defied the odds to steer clear of relegation trouble last season after promotion, but could find it tougher second time round. New manager Michael Appleton, back for his second spell in charge following Neil Critchley's departure, has been forced to be patient in the transfer market in his bid to strengthen.

Prediction: Survival after relegation battle

BRISTOL CITY

Season-ticket sales of more than 13,000 in early July are testament to a growing sense of optimism at Ashton Gate. The Robins finished 17th last season, but fans are hoping boss Nigel Pearson laid the foundations for success in his first full campaign in charge. Jason Euell's arrival as first-team coach has strengthened his hand.

Prediction: Mid-table

BURNLEY

Burnley's six-year Premier League stay ended in May and a new era must unfold at Turf Moor. Vincent Kompany embarks on his first season as a manager in English football and it remains to be seen how the club respond after a player exodus and a raft of new signings were brought in by the former Belgium and Manchester City defender.

Prediction: Play-offs

CARDIFF CITY

Bluebirds owner Vincent Tan has entrusted manager Steve Morison with another season at the helm after he steered them clear of a relegation fight, but the pressure is on after a summer of heavy recruitment. A play-off challenge is expected, but that will depend on how quickly Morison's new-look squad can gel.

Prediction: Mid-table

COVENTRY CITY

Coventry have maintained year-on-year progress under boss Mark Robins after two promotions and last season's 12th-placed finish. The Sky Blues harboured play-off hopes in mid-April and will be aiming to mount another challenge, but Robins' task will only get harder unless he can strengthen while retaining his best players.

Prediction: Play-off challengers

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN

One of last season's biggest surprises after finishing third and falling short in the play-off final, Huddersfield have had to regroup following head coach Carlos Corberan's shock resignation. Replacement Danny Schofield faces a huge challenge to keep them moving forward, but the Terriers appear to have recruited well again.

Prediction: Play-off challengers

HULL CITY

Having survived their first season back in the second tier, Hull have reinvested the £17.1million received from Brentford for England Under-21s striker Keane Lewis-Potter in some eye-catching new recruits. Turkish owner Acun Ilıcak has Premier League aspirations and will hope head coach Shota Arveladze can mount a play-off challenge.

Prediction: Mid-table

LUTON TOWN

Luton boss Nathan Jones was named Sky Bet Championship manager of the year last season for guiding his side into the play-offs. The Hatters have laid the blueprint for smaller clubs and after more shrewd business in the summer transfer market, Jones will be striving to keep pushing the bar.

Prediction: Mid-table

MIDDLESBROUGH

Boro have a serial promotion winner at the helm in Chris Wilder and missed out on a play-off place on the final day last season after he had arrived in November. The former Sheffield United boss, hellbent on a top-flight return, has the club's full support and subject to more new signings, Boro can challenge for promotion.

Prediction: Play-offs

MILLWALL

Gary Rowett signed a new contract this month after last season's play-off hopes ended on the final day. He has led Millwall to eighth, 11th and ninth-placed finishes and with some new additions, including on-loan Leeds defenders Charlie Cresswell and Jamie Shackleton, the Lions hope to nail a top-six finish.

Prediction: Play-off challengers

NORWICH CITY

Norwich were relegated from the Premier

League for the second time in three seasons but the odds are still stacked in their favour for another instant return. Parachute payments have helped Dean Smith (left) retain one of the strongest squads in the Championship and add the likes of Brazilian Gabriel Sara and Isaac Hayden.

Prediction: Automatic promotion

PRESTON NORTH END

Ryan Lowe steered Preston clear of relegation danger after replacing Frankie McAvoy in December, but

SON – IT KICKS OFF ON FRIDAY!

BIG SIGNING: Isaac Hayden has moved to Norwich City

he is in the process of rebuilding after releasing 13 players in May. Former Liverpool midfielder Ben Woodburn and Robbie Brady have joined as free agents, but the Lilywhites could struggle in an increasingly competitive division and it'll be a long season.

Prediction: Survival after relegation battles

QUEENS PARK RANGERS

QPR chairman Amit Bhatia heralded Michael Beale as a "spectacular coach" when appointing him as Mark Warburton's replacement in June. Beale worked as first-team coach under Steven Gerrard at Rangers and Aston Villa, but after choosing to go it alone only time will tell if he can justify the excitement from within Loftus Road.

READING

Paul Ince, named permanent boss after steering Reading clear of the bottom three, must defy the bookmakers' odds if he is to do so again. Shane Long has returned to the club and Newcastle's Jeff Hendrick has joined on loan, but the Royals lost their way under Ince's predecessor Veljko Paunovic and are among the favourites for the drop.

ROTHERHAM

Paul Warne sealed his third promotion in five and a half years as Rotherham boss in April. The Millers bounced straight back to the Championship after relegation for a second time, but Warne has met with frustration in the summer transfer market and faces another huge task to keep them punching above their weight.

SHEFFIELD UNITED

The Blades' bid for an immediate top-flight return last season ended in play-off semi-final disappointment, but they will be challenging again under Paul Heckingbottom. More signings are expected after the arrivals of Anel Ahmedhodzic, Ciaran Clark and England Under-21 midfielder Tommy Doyle, on loan from Manchester City.

STOKE CITY

Stoke have had a major reshuffle this summer. Joe Allen, Tom Ince and Alfie Doughty were among a long list of departures, but the Potters have recruited wisely and Dwight Gayle's arrival from Newcastle could add a cutting edge as they aim to improve on four consecutive mid-table finishes since top-flight relegation in 2018.

SUNDERLAND

Sunderland's progress under Alex Neil has been impressive and the signings of Jack Clarke and Patrick Roberts, influential in getting them out of League One, appear good business. But there has been little other transfer activity and a mid-table finish may be more realistic for fans dreaming of back-to-back promotions.

Prediction: Mid-table

SWANSEA CITY

Russell Martin's first season in charge ended in a disappointing 15th-placed finish after Swansea were beaten playoff finalists in the previous campaign, but they are geared for another promotion push. After leaving Stoke, Allen has returned to the Liberty Stadium as one of several summer recruits with the aim of ending the Swans' five-year Premier League exile.

WATFORD

Watford moved swiftly to install Rob Edwards as manager in May following their second Premier League relegation in three seasons. Much depends on how the Hornets react to the likely departures of Ismaila Sarr and Emmanuel Dennis, but Edwards, who guided Forest Green to the League Two title, is aiming for back-to-back promotions.

WEST BROMWICH ALBION

Last season was one for West Brom to forget but Steve Bruce, appointed in February, has added John Swift, Jed Wallace and Okay Yokuslu to his squad while Daryl Dike's return to fitness will be a major boost. With more new signings expected, the Baggies boss will target his fifth Premier League promotion as manager.

WIGAN ATHLETIC

The Latics' return to the second tier, two years after a points deduction for going into administration had led to relegation, has been followed by reports of more cash-flow problems, which the current owners have denied. But no new signings had arrived by late July and another survival battle beckons.

Prediction: Relegation

RON BACK AT UNITED

CR7 drives in for talks over his future

CRISTIANO Ronaldo has finally reported back for training at Manchester United.

But the Old Trafford legend may not be at the club for long.

There is growing talk that he will ask manager Erik Ten Hag to let him leave. That's because the 37-year-old wants to play Champions League football next season.

By JOHN ANTHONY

With United mired in the second-tier Europa League the Portuguese is heading for the exit.

It's telling that Sir Alex Ferguson was also seen entering the Carrington training complex.

It would be no surprise if he was brought in to help convince Ronaldo to stay at the club. It's also key that CR7's agent Jorge Mendes was with him as he drove through the gates.

The issue has been that no club really wants to pay massive wages for Ronaldo.

Real Madrid, PSG, Atletico Madrid and Bayern Munich were all thought to be in contact.

But Ronaldo's £500,000 a week salary is a problem.

Barcelona want him but are struggling financially, as are his former club Sporting Lisbon who would love a homecoming for the veteran.
